J. DOE 003	235-13, 249-13, 280-1, 321-1, 423-4	Employee of Epstein; Alleged Witness	Plaintiff: This material should be unsealed in full. First, “[t]he burden of demonstrating that a document submitted to a court should be sealed rests on the party seeking such action.” DiRussa v. Dean Witter Reynolds Inc., 121 F.3d 818, 826 (2d Cir. 1997). This individual did not raise any objection to unsealing, and thus did not meet their burden of identifying “with specificity competing and compelling interests in closure” and that “those interests outweigh the presumption of access.” Lytle v. JPMorgan Chase, 810 F. Supp. 2d 616, 621 (S.D.N.Y. 2011). Second, this individual gave a media interview about their work for Epstein to the Daily Mail in 2011, weighing against continued sealing. United States v. Avenatti, No. (S1) 19 CR. 373 (PGG), 2020 WL 70952, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 6, 2020) (“In considering whether sealing is appropriate, an important consideration is, of course, whether the information sought to be kept confidential is already public.”); 4/19/22 Hearing Tr. at 7:11-16 (unsealing documents relating to Doe who gave media interviews and was identified in the press); see [REDACTED]  [REDACTED]  [REDACTED] Defendant: All docket mentions are Rule 26 disclosures. This individual and Doe #4 reportedly live abroad and no confirmation of receipt of the Notice was received.
J. DOE 004	235-13, 249-13, 280-1, 321-1, 423-4	Employee of Epstein; Alleged Witness	Plaintiff: This material should be unsealed in full. First, this individual did not raise any objection to unsealing, and thus did not meet their burden of identifying interests that outweigh the presumption of access with specificity. DiRussa, 121 F.3d at 826; Lytle, 810 F. J. DOE 005	315, 316-7, 340-4, 368, 369-3	Alleged Victim; Alleged Witness	Plaintiff: This material should be unsealed in full. First, this individual did not raise any objection to unsealing, and thus did not meet their burden of identifying interests that outweigh the presumption of access with specificity. DiRussa, 121 F.3d at 826; Lytle, 810 F. Supp. 2d at 621. Second, this individual testified publicly at Maxwell's criminal trial, weighing against continued sealing. Avenatti, 2020 WL 70952, at *6; 11/18/22 Hearing Tr. at 6:19-25 (unsealing documents relating to Doe whose name came up publicly at Maxwell criminal trial). This individual, however, testified under their first name only with Judge Nathan's permission. Plaintiff therefore has no objection to the redaction of this individual's last name in documents that are not already public. Defendant objects to redaction of this Doe's last name. The witness publicly waived any right to anonymity after the criminal trial, as Judge Nathan found, and gave an interview using their first and last names, so no legal basis to redact last name remains.
