Re: Giuffre v. Maxwell,
Case No. 15-cv-07433-LAP

Dear Judge Preska:

Plaintiff submits the following categories of documents pursuant to the Court's Order of September 5, 2019. Dkt. 982. The parties met and conferred several times over the past two weeks, and were able to reach agreement with the exceptions of Categories 4 and 10 below. Plaintiff believes that all documents concerning trial deposition designations (including objections and counter-designations) fit comfortably within one category. Defendant requested that Category 4 be broken out into two separate categories: one for trial deposition designations, and another for counter-designations, trial objections, and counter-designations. Plaintiff includes as Category 10 "Motions re. depositions," which Defendant's list does not include.

It is Plaintiff's understanding from the meet and confer process that Defendant Maxwell's submission may also include labeling certain docket entries as including information that was put forth in Defendant's view for an "improper purpose." Defendant did not challenge these submissions in the underlying action despite having the opportunity to do so, and it is Plaintiff's position that Defendant cannot now inject these belated challenges, which are all unfounded in any event.

While the parties generally agree as to the categories, there is disagreement as to which categories the individual docket entries listed below fall under. In addition, Plaintiff considers each document in question to be a judicial document.

Categories Reflected in Docket Entries:

1. Motions to Compel and Related Motions for Protective Orders and Court Orders ("Motion to Compel")

The Honorable Judge Loretta A. Preska
